Gentlemen

Yours of the 13th, just to hand, I am positive that I never received your priced catalogue, with plates, of the Burkhart sale, as I gave up my P. O. Box, some time ago. I made inquiry at our Post Office, living within two Blocks of it, but found nothing there, kept for me, I could not forgotten the receipt of it, as I naturaly would have found it among my books. I do not see that my letter contained the order for the same As I take it, saying I will send my order for the sale, as well as for a plate catalogue, does not contain positive order, as I do not send you order, for the sale, I certainly did not order catalogue, but if I had received it, notwithstanding all this, I would most assuredly pay for it, as it is I cant pay for any thing not recevd

Respectfully
A Dohrmann

I have done all I could, in this matter and will not waste any further time, and postage
